HALLECK CREEK RANCH

Breaking Barriers Since 1977

Help us Reach our Goal!

Donations Matched now through May 18

We're less than half-way to reaching our goal this spring, and our horses are counting on your support! To date, we've raised about $20,000 of our $65,000 goal, and our May 31 deadline is quickly approaching.

Click here to ensure our beloved horses get the care they deserve!

In addition to foundation grants, our Spring Fundraising Campaign is one of many that help cover our annual operating budget, and we rely heavily on their success to fund our programs. The costs of caring for our horses have dramatically increased in recent years due to drought and inflation, but as the cornerstones of our program, we owe it to our horses to provide the best care, feed, and stabling possible.

Frank (pictured above) is looking for a sponsor, and needs your help!

A liver chestnut Quarter Horse gelding born in 2009, Frank is a former working horse from the nearby Barboni Ranch. Frank has been there, done that, and is a no nonsense kind of guy. He's calm, gentle, grounded, and reliable – just how we like them! And despite not having had any experience being ridden and led at the same time prior to coming to HCR, Frank seems to have quickly figured out that he's carrying precious cargo, and takes each ride in stride.

We have a match! Thank to a local donor, all donations made through May 18 will be matched, dollar-for-dollar. Act now and support a horse at any level! With your permission, your gift will be acknowledged on our website, our Wall of Horse Heroes, and on social media. And thank you to those who have contributed so far - we couldn't do this without you!

Additionally, they will serve as a useful tool for returning volunteers who are in need of a quick refresher training. Please click here and check out our YouTube channel for more!

Meet Cali

New Pony at Old Rancheria

California Girl, aka Cali, was donated to Halleck Creek by Alexis Georgeson. In her previous life, Cali traveled around the United States competing as a large jumping pony, earning a long list of accomplishments to her name. She has given confidence to many children in the jumping ring before coming to Halleck Creek, and her fun-loving personality has quickly made her a wonderful fit for Halleck Creek. She continues to give a new set of students confidence here at the Ranch. Cali is partially-sponsored by Jim Rutherford, and is looking for an additional sponsor at any level.

Bloom Clothing Drive

Spring Closet Clearing for a good cause

Wrong size? Wrong Color? Just don't wear it much? Spring is a great time to clear those closets to simplify choices and make way for the new! One of our program co-founder Joyce Goldfield's passions has always been collecting and donating clothing for good causes in the Bay Area. So it is very much in the tradition of Halleck Creek Ranch and with Joyce in mind that we will be collecting lightly used clothing during the month of June for Bloom, a local nonprofit that provides complimentary wardrobes to children, women, and men who are transitioning to a life of self-reliance. Learn more about their current clothing needs and guidelines by clicking here.

You can arrange drop off at RockRose Ranch in Nicasio with mstessin@halleckcreekranch.org or sklein@halleckcreekranch.org.

Show off your Superpower at our Talent Show!

We will be holding our first ever talent show on June 8 at RockRose Ranch! Do you like to sing? dance? play a sport? You can perform live or submit a video, alone or with a group. You can also bring something to display or a collection to share. Anything you love to do! Participants, families, friends, volunteers...open to all and all are welcome! Check out Dani and her tongue twisters here!
